IPAMS Hosts Discussion on Government Policies, OTC Commodities & Financial Risk Management

(DENVER) – The Independent Petroleum Association of Mountain States (IPAMS) will host a panel of industry experts on how new government policies could limit natural gas and oil companies ability to manage risk in the financial market. The event will be held Thursday, October 15, 2009 from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at the Denver Athletic Club in downtown Denver, Colorado.

Featured panelists include Dr. Vince Kaminiski, Professor Rice University, Jesse H. Jones Graduate School of Management, and Mark Lenczowski, Managing Director and Associate General Counsel, J.P. Morgan Investment Bank. The discussion will focus on policy changes currently under consideration in Washington, D.C. that could have a profound impact on the energy industry's ability to manage price volatility risk and stabilize energy costs for consumers.

All media related attendees and inquires should be directed to Jon Haubert at 303.623.0987 or jhaubert@ipams.org.
